Press release

WineAutumn along the Alto Adige Wine Road

Experience the unique landscape and special atmosphere of autumn along the Alto Adige Wine Road, with a wealth of wine, culture and culinary experiences. That's exactly what WineAutumn is all about, running from 3 September to 11 November 2026.

When autumn settles over the landscape of the Alto Adige Wine Road between Nals/Nalles, Bolzano/Bozen and Salorno/Salurn, when the leaves turn gold, the grapes are harvested and the apples picked, it's time for WineAutumn: wine lovers, food enthusiasts and culture fans from near and far can look forward to guided tours, village festivals, inspiring concerts, autumn hikes, wine experiences and culinary highlights.

In 2026, WineAutumn draws visitors to one of Italy's oldest wine routes for the seventh time, promising not only unforgettable moments but also an extended autumn season reaching into November. All WineAutumn events can be found here: www.suedtirol.info/wineautumn

The initiative is organised in cooperation with the tourist boards of Nals/Nalles, Andrian/Andriano, Terlan/Terlano, Eppan/Appiano, Kaltern am See/Caldaro al Lago, Tramin/Termenò, Südtirols Süden and Laives-Bronzolo-Vadena, together with the Bolzano/Bozen Tourist Office.

About the Alto Adige Wine Road Association

The Alto Adige Wine Road Association, headquartered in Kaltern/Caldaro, brings together municipalities, tourism organisations, cooperative wineries, wine estates and distilleries along one of Italy's most prestigious wine routes. Through targeted marketing initiatives, events and tourism development projects, the Association plays a key role in establishing the Alto Adige Wine Road as a premium destination for wine and culture enthusiasts.
