

Alto Adige Wine Road

The Alto Adige Wine Road celebrates WineAutumn

Discover the unique landscape and special atmosphere of autumn along the Alto Adige Wine Road. From 3 September to 11 November 2025, WineAutumn invites you to explore the charm of Alto Adige's Wine Road with a wealth of culinary and cultural experiences.

When autumn transforms the landscape between Nals/Nalles and Salorno/Salurn, when the forests glow in golden tones, the grape harvest begins and apples are picked, it is time for WineAutumn. Wine lovers, gourmets, and culture enthusiasts from near and far can look forward to engaging guided tours, lively village festivals, inspiring concerts, scenic autumn hikes, authentic food-and-wine experiences, and delicious local specialties.

In 2025, WineAutumn will welcome visitors for the sixth time along one of Italy's oldest wine roads, offering not only unforgettable moments but also an autumn season that extends all the way into November. Thanks to the mild Mediterranean climate, the area between Nals and Salorno can once again be enjoyed in all its splendour.

The full programme of events for WineAutumn along the Alto Adige Wine Road can be found here: www.suedtirol.info/wineautumn.

The initiative is organised in collaboration with the tourist associations of Nals, Andrian, Terlan, Eppan, Kaltern am See, Tramin, Südtirols Süden, and Laives–Bronzolo–Vadena, as well as the Tourist Office of the city of Bolzano.
