Wine Sounds: Music Meets Wine in Historic Settings along the Alto Adige Wine Road

From 16 October to 6 November 2026, a total of 10 concerts will take place in the manor houses, castles and palaces along one of Europe's most beautiful wine roads, combining wine, music and culture. The Wine Sounds concert series along the Alto Adige Wine Road brings together the region's cultural and territorial riches. Audiences can enjoy top-quality wines accompanied by wonderful music in inspiring venues.

The events at a glance

The series opens on Friday, 16 October, at 7 pm, when the ensemble AlpinLounge performs contemporary sounds at Ansitz Freienfeld in Kurtatsch/Cortaccia. The evening includes a tasting of five selected South Tyrolean wines and fine finger food.

On Saturday, 17 October, at 10:30 am, the South Tyrolean Duo Lumina, featuring saxophone and guitar, performs at the Von Braunbach winery in Siebeneich/Settequerce (Terlan/Terlano). The concert is accompanied by Terlan wines, sparkling wine, Terlan wine soup and small bites.

On Thursday, 22 October, from 6:30 pm, Schloss Freudenstein in Berg/Monte (Eppan/Appiano) becomes the stage for Cordes y Butons and their Alpine instruments. Eppan wines will be served, and there will be an exhibition of the photo competition "The Most Beautiful Vineyard".

The following day, Friday, 23 October, at 6:30 pm, the Laimburg rock cellar in Vadena/Pfatten hosts a performance by the young, award-winning pianist Paul Herbst. After the concert, guests can enjoy select wines from the Landesweingut Laimburg and a Speckbrettl (a charcuterie board of South Tyrolean speck and other cold cuts).

On Saturday, 24 October, at 6 pm, the Windkraft Ensemble, with string quartet and clarinet, plays at Palais Longo in Neumarkt/Egna. The evening ends with fine wines and culinary delights.

On Sunday, 25 October, at 4:30 pm, Acoustic Rojel performs at Ansitz Villa Raßlhof in Tramin/Termenò, where Alpine folk music, folk, pop and jazz come together. A tasting of the house wines rounds off the evening.

On Tuesday, 27 October, at 8 pm, the renowned Haydn Orchestra is the guest at the Bolzano/Bozen Municipal Theatre, accompanied by fine Bolzano/Bozen wines.

On Thursday, 29 October, at 7:30 pm, the chamber orchestra O/Modernt and violinist Hugo Ticciati perform at the Museion in Bolzano/Bozen, accompanied by three quality wines from Bolzano/Bozen.

On Friday, 30 October, at 6:30 pm, the Vineum in Girlan/Cornaiano (Eppan/Appiano) hosts a concert by David Frank on accordion and fingerstyle guitarist Marc Perin. The evening features sparkling wines from the Lorenz Martini winery and an exhibition of the photo competition "The Most Beautiful Vineyard".

This year's Wine Sounds conclude on Friday, 6 November, at 5:30 pm with DueDiFuori, in which Maura Bruschetti (voice and viola) and Adriano Piccioni (double bass) will enchant Ansitz Windegg in Kaltern/Caldaro. After the concert, guests can enjoy fine wines and small delicacies.

In 2026, Johann Finatzer is the artistic director of the Wine Sounds concert series along the Alto Adige Wine Road for the fourth time. He is responsible for the musical concept of the series, ensuring the highest quality and a broad range of musical genres. The event is an initiative of the Alto Adige Wine Road Association in cooperation with the tourism associations of Nals/Nalles, Andrian/Andriano, Terlan/Terlano, Eppan/Appiano, Kaltern am See/Caldaro al Lago, Tramin/Termenno, Südtirols Süden (South Tyrol's South) and Leifers-Branzoll-Pfatten (Laives-Bronzolo-Vadena), as well as the Bolzano/Bozen Tourist Office.
