Press release

Wine Cellar Night 2026 in Nals, Terlan and Bolzano

On Friday, 12 June 2026, the Wine Cellar Night will take place in the northern part of the Alto Adige Wine Road. From 5 p.m. to midnight, a total of 14 wineries and wine estates at 12 locations in Nals/Nalles, Terlan/Terlano and Bolzano/Bozen will open their doors for tastings, guided tours, culinary offerings and live music – giving wine enthusiasts the chance to experience the diversity of South Tyrolean wine culture in a single evening.

The participating estates – from wineries with centuries of history to modern cellars with award-winning architecture – will offer exclusive behind-the-scenes insights into South Tyrolean wine production. Alongside guided cellar tours, guests can enjoy tastings of selected wines, fine culinary pairings and musical entertainment. Each estate will design its own programme individually, so the offerings will vary from winery to winery.

A shuttle service will connect the participating wineries in Nals, Terlan and Bolzano, making for a relaxed and carefree evening. Tickets are available on all shuttle buses and at the two info points at the Kellerei Bozen winery and the Griesbauerhof estate.

Participating wineries 2026:

Nals: Nals Margreid Winery

Terlan: Terlan Winery & Andrian Winery, Sparkling Winery Stocker & Leya Winery, Kornell Winery

Bolzano: Bozen Winery, Schmid Oberrautner Winery, Malojer Gummerhof Winery, Griesbauerhof Winery, Eberlehof Winery, Waldgries Winery, Mayr-Unterganzner Winery, Thurnhof Winery

About the Wine Cellar Night

The Wine Cellar Night is one of the best-known wine events on the Alto Adige Wine Road and takes place every year in mid June. It is aimed at wine lovers and all those who wish to get to know the wine region and its producers better. The Alto Adige Wine Road – one of Italy's oldest wine roads – stretches 150 km from Nals in the north to Salorno/Salurn in the south and encompasses around 4,400 hectares of vineyards.
